INTRODUCING THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF MEDICINE

The Royal Society of Medicine is one of the UK's major providers of CPD accredited postgraduate medical education.

Our members range from senior doctors at the peak of their careers, through to trainees, medical students and other staff working in the healthcare sector or with an interest in healthcare issues.

Corporate Membership

Corporate Membership of the Royal Society of Medicine is only available to organisations working in the healthcare arena wishing to provide inspirational opportunities for learning and professional development to nominated staff.

Hospitals, technology companies, medical equipment manufacturers, financial institutions, law firms, medical charities, colleges and universities are just some of the organisations who already belong to the RSM and who are already benefiting from RSM Corporate Membership.

The Society's activities

Each year the Society organises over 400 educational meetings, spanning 60 specialties providing a multi-disciplinary forum for discussion and debate. A public engagement programme of meetings and lectures complements the Society's academic agenda.

The Society is home to one of the finest medical libraries in the world, with an extensive collection of books, journals, electronic journals and online medical databases with experienced staff on hand to assist with search services and consultancy.

Our aims

Independent and apolitical, the aims of the Society since it was founded over 200 years ago have always been to:

- Provide a broad range of educational activities and opportunities for doctors, dentists, veterinary surgeons, students and allied health professionals.
- Promote an exchange of information and ideas on the science, practice and organisation of medicine, both within the health professions and with responsible and informed public opinion.

The Royal Society of Medicine was established in 1805 and was first granted a Royal Charter by His Majesty King William IV in 1834. The RSM's patron is Her Majesty The Queen.

The Society is a registered charity and receives no state funding to carry out its work.

"The enormous value of the RSM is its combination of broad, globally-focused, trans-specialty educational programmes complemented by world-leading specialty events"

Mr Simon Lambert, joined 2001

SUPPORTING YOUR TEAM WITH PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

As a Corporate Member of the Royal Society of Medicine, your organisation holds the key to an outstanding range of professional development opportunities for your nominated staff.

Educational meetings and conferences

Hosting one of the most extensive programmes of medical education in the UK, the RSM offers highly preferential discounts for Corporate Member nominees when attending RSM meetings.

Some events are free and relevant CPD credits can be awarded where applicable.

Event programmes are designed to provide excellent networking opportunities that allow delegates to mingle with colleagues and speakers.

RSM Videos

Lectures from key RSM meetings are available for Corporate Member nominees to view free-of-charge online at www.videos.rsm.ac.uk, with an option for unlimited online CPD.

Currently there are over 600 lectures online and new videos are added each week.

Online journals and educational resources

Included in the Corporate Membership subscription is access for nominees to over 5,000 full text e-journals.

Access to ClinicalKey is also offered, with over 13,000 medical and surgical training videos, a database of clinical guidelines and over 3,000 drug monographs.

Five major clinical databases are available, together with a growing collection of 1,500 e-books.

"It is one of the top professional bodies and I have seen it go from strength to strength over the years"

Dr Adina Tarry, joined 2008

EXCEPTIONAL LIBRARY SERVICES

With 600,000 volumes and 12,000 journals, the RSM Library is one of the finest biomedical libraries in Europe.

As a Corporate Member of the RSM, your nominated staff will automatically have access to the Library, together with the wide range of services designed to help them make the most of the exceptional educational resources available.

A document delivery service provides scanned PDF files, fax or photocopies of items from the RSM's collection.

A literature search service is offered by a highly skilled team of specialist librarians, including in-depth searches of biomedical and scientific databases, such as Medline, Embase, Allied & Complementary Medicine (AMED) and DH-Data.

Corporate Member nominees may also take advantage of free Information Skills training courses covering database searching and accessing online resources.

There are seven private study rooms and an out-of-hours study centre open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. A suite of 28 PCs is available, together with free printing and photocopying.

The Library also has several rooms available for Corporate Members to hire for their own meetings.

"I find having somewhere good quality, safe and central to stay in London is a real asset"

Miss Jane Riley, joined 2014

EXCLUSIVE MEMBERS' ONLY CLUB FACILITIES

The superb members' only club facilities at the Royal Society of Medicine are available to Corporate Members and their nominated staff for both personal and business use.

Located in the heart of London's West End, the Society has two members' lounges, a bar and café area open every day, as well as an elegant restaurant open for breakfast, lunch and dinner Monday to Friday and at weekends for breakfast. Menus change regularly, reflecting seasonal produce and all food is prepared on the premises by our skilled team of in-house chefs.

There are three stylish private dining rooms available to Corporate Members free of hire charge, seating up to 24 guests – perfect for hosting a business lunch or dinner or entertaining clients.

Accommodation for Corporate Member nominees needing to stay overnight in London is available at the members' only hotel, Domus Medica, which has 47 bedrooms. Rates start at just £106 a night per room, inclusive of continental breakfast and VAT.

The RSM's nearby beautiful boutique hotel, Chandos House, is also available to Corporate Member nominees at discounted rates.

Nominees travelling in the UK or overseas also have access to the RSM's global network of over 50 reciprocal clubs.

"Exceptional facilities and a very well run organisation"

Mr Louis Shakinovsky, joined 2013

BENEFITING YOUR ORGANISATION

RSM accreditation

RSM CORPORATE MEMBER 2016/17

Corporate Members of the Royal Society of Medicine are invited to display a unique logo on their websites and corporate literature.

This exclusively designed symbol recognises the investment of our Corporate Members in the professional development of the people working in their organisations. At the same time the symbol demonstrates the commitment of your organisation and the Royal Society of Medicine to ultimately improving patient care.

Corporate Members receive an RSM certificate of membership for their organisation. Membership cards are provided to all nominees providing access to the RSM's Club and Library facilities.

Corporate Membership of the Royal Society of Medicine provides a unique opportunity for learning and professional development for your nominated staff.

High quality, multi-disciplinary medical education combines with unrivalled professional networking opportunities within this most prestigious and well-regarded institution.

By demonstrating your commitment to their development, your nominated staff will benefit from an exceptional package of benefits.
